From the Director General, Drugs & Copyrights, Drugs Control Administration, Hyderabad, Letter Rc.No.14663/S(V)/010, dated 02-04-2011 and 26-04-2011.

--O--

ORDER:-

The Director General, Drugs & Copyrights, Drugs Control Administration has informed that all the Drug Inspectors who are the field officers at District level have to carry out statutory inspections in the areas allotted to them. But, they have not been provided with any convenience and they are depending on public transport system to cover the entire area allotted to the concerned for carrying out inspections, searches, seizures and to attend courts etc. Moreover, most of the industry is established in remote areas where public transport cannot reach. In case any important information is received regarding movements of spurious drugs, the officers are not able to reach the spot due to non availability of transfer and they are hiring private vehicles in such emergent situations.

2. The Director General, Drugs & Copyrights, Drugs Control Administration has also stated that Government have allotted Rs.2.85 crores for hiring of private vehicles for the year 2011-12, out of which only 131 vehicles can be hired with the available budget. He has requested the Government to accord administrative sanction for hiring of 131 vehicles to Enforcement and Supervisory Officers within the budget provision to the Department for the year 2011-12.

3. After careful examination of the matter, the Government hereby accord administrative sanction to the Director General, Drugs & Copyrights, Drugs Control Administration for hiring of 100 vehicles to the Enforcement and Supervisory Officers, subject to meeting the expenditure within the Budget Estimates 2011-12.

4. The Director General, Drugs & Copyrights, Drugs Control Administration shall take further action accordingly.

5. This order issues with the concurrence of Finance (Expr.M&H.II) Department, vide their U.O. No.13267/88/A2/Expr.M&H.II/2011, dated 01-06-2011.
